FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

BETHLEHEM.

The Fourth passed off very quietly here and seemed more like Sunday than a National holiday.

James Kimball of Portland and John Kimball of Andover, Me., have been visiting their niece, Mrs. P. M. Bartlett, the past week.

L. N. Cummings and family from Uxbridge, Mass., arrived last week.

Miss Lura Cole was married last week to Mr. Trumbull of Mass. and accompanied by her husband, is on a short visit to her father, Abner Cole.

"Aunt Hannah" Perry arrived Thursday from Ashland, Mass.

Harry Bates came home from Lynn, Mass., to spend the Fourth.

Almon M. Whitman is spending a few weeks with his parents.

Tramps and beggars are more numerous than they have been for many years. A few vigorous applications of the tramp law should be made to check such lawlessness.

The funeral services of Mrs. Benjamin Davis were held Tuesday, July 7, at Canton.

GREENWOOD.

L. F. Emmons had new potatoes and green peas the 4th.

Seaver, B. son of C. M. Buck, arrived home from Ellsworth to spend his vacation.

C. M. has commenced to cut some June grass. The farmers here will not commence haying in earnest till next week and week after next.

B. M. Davis and wife went to Oxford the 4th to visit her parents.

Some of our young folks went to Albany Basin the 4th, and some to the Ansonia Basin to get a picnic. It is said they had a grand good time at both places.

JOHN THORNTON.

LOVELL.

Mrs. Seth Hutchins has been confined to her bed by illness for the past few weeks, but is now improving.

The Fourth of July passed here very quietly. Quite a crowd congregated at the village. There was music by the band assisted by Frank Cash of Bridgeport, a tub race and a foot race, a skating race at the rink, and a John F. Hobbs, esq. In the morning festivities appeared with the usual abundance.

Friday evening there was a dance at the skating rink, with supper at the Country House.

A few days ago Frank Parker who lives at the Mill Bridge district in Eryburgh, was badly injured by a year old bull. He went into the pasture to see up the calves, and was trampled and attacked and thrown to the ground. Two ribs were broken and he remained getting better for two hours. He is now in E. G. Kimball's hands.

E. G. Kimball has been quite feeble in health lately.

The inhabitant of the city now seeks the cool retreat of the country and takes great interest in the welfare of his countrymen.

J. H. Walker is visiting at the home of his father, H. G. Walker. James is a good fellow, H. G. is a happy day when he is around.

One plague follows another. The sewing machine men are thinned out somewhat, but the moving machine fellows are thicker than ever, each with the best machine.

RICHARDSON'S LAKE.

Joseph Murray, the Irish Comedian, and wife of New York, who have been staying at the Upper dam, started home Saturday. They made a stay of five weeks.

Max Redie, who is camping out at the Point, capsized his boat while trying to board the steamer, and came near losing his life. He was rescued, but for the time being is P. Thomas.

Two old fellows, while working at the Point, found an old box. It was a place of concealment for a line. They plotted the cotton and success crowned their efforts. They caught thirty-five handsome trout.

A fisherman and a hundred miles from the Point, the fish were rising on each side of him. His friends advised him to stay and fish, which he did. He could be seen late at night.

In last week's it should have read Mrs. L. Hovey and Mrs. P. M. Sessons took their friends to the lakes. Sunday the lake road was flooded. Mac, Andover's oldest farmer, came near drowning one of his horses. H.

LOCKE'S MILLS.

Samuel Foster and son from North on business with their father, arrived in town last Thursday.

A family has moved into one of E. O. W. Brown's. He is to run a Waymouth Lath in the village.

Fishing in our ponds near the factory. Good boats to let at reasonable rates.

I notice some company is arriving at Dudley Cottage.

Frank Buck from Gorham, N. H., is visiting his father, Stephen Buck.

Fourth of July passed off quietly in the village. There they had a very good time.

Daniel B. Lebrack and wife from South Waterford, are in town visiting friends.

Mr. Davis and family have moved from Bethel on to the Eliza Libby house in the village.

Mrs. M. P. Ladd has her new house finished. It is a very nice house, and is occupied by our depot agent, Fred Scott.

OTTISFIELD.

E. C. Marple has sold his nice colt to Bridgeton party.

Eliza Turner has been suffering for the past two weeks with an abscess on her neck.

Dr. James L. Warren's family from Oxford have moved into town this week.

There is a meeting on Ball Hill every two weeks. There is a very good time.

Lotie Robinson and Mabel Turner are home from Bridgeton school on a short vacation.

M. F. Fagan has returned home from Philadelphia.

HARRISBORO.

Henry Harris has a lamb three months old that weighs 100 lbs. and is very fat.

S. K. Wright raised 36 lambs all very large and handsome, which he sold for $40 per head.

N. J. Wright bought a cross sheep six years ago for which he paid $50. From this sheep he has sold one head of wool worth of lambs, $21.00, and one head of wool worth of lambs, $21.00, and one head of wool worth of lambs, $21.00.

NORTHWEST.

The 4th passed off very nicely with a grand celebration, which with E. P. Grover Marshal of the day everything proved a grand success. There was a band in attendance which furnished music as the occasion required. Speeches were made by Judge Woodbury of Bethel and Mr. Amos Deane of H. A. nice picnic dinner was given at the grove where all the hungry were fed and lots of amusement given. There was a grand display of fireworks in the evening which was well managed, and the all went home well satisfied with the day of enjoyment.

Mr. Hall and wife from the West are spending the summer at W. H. Morrill's. Mr. H. has furnished his room with a nice chamber set.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Farwell and son of Cambridgeport, Mass., are here, on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. N. H. Palmer of North Lovell, spent the Fourth with her sister, Mrs. Milton Holt.

Charles Neidham, who spent the past week in the village for his horse, returned to Boston, Mass., where he is now driving team. Mr. N. is a son of one of the owners of this place.

W. A. Farwell has just built a new house, which when fully completed will be nice and convenient.

Mrs. Mary Smith has her new house built, and is now moving in.

There was a dance at Cummings' Hall Friday night. I understand they had a very enjoyable time.

The Fourth passed off pleasantly with the Sunday School and their friends, a few from neighboring towns, and a large number of the local people, assembled in Union Grove. A picnic and chairs were provided for free. There was a very good time.
